About Des

Thank you for your enquiry to Northern Exposure about our specialist wedding photography. Our aim is to please, primarily with beautiful images and also attractive prices.

Bangor based Des Rowan is one of Northern Ireland's most sought after wedding photographers. The meteoric rise of Des's reputation is due to his flair in producing wedding albums that are innovative, dynamic, creative and passionate. He is one of the new generation of photographers with a respect for tradition and also an eye of originality.

Des has been a professional photographer for over 12 years shooting over 1000 weddings and being in his thirties can relate to the needs of today's Bride & Groom. His belief in creating a friendly and relaxed relationship with his clients, result in natural refreshing images that truly reflect your wedding day.

The meticulous attention to detail and enthusiasm shown by Des in his preparation for your wedding, will produce beautifully relaxed images with minimum fuss, leaving you to enjoy one of the most important and enjoyable days of you life

Coverages

The coverage's are set by where you want Des to start and by the size of album you require, NOT by the amount of images taken on the day, as there is no limit. You will receive a CD-R of ALL the proofs and password enabled access to the photographs through the website. The disc is yours to keep for future reference.

The Albums are Handmade in Italy using the finest of materials to guarantee archival quality for viewing in generations to come.
